Subject : Registration open for UDAAN Project 2017-19 batch – regarding.

Sir/Madam,

As you must be aware CBSE in the year 2014 has initiated UDAAN - a project to give wings to girl students who aim to pursue higher education in engineering and assist them to prepare for the entrance exams while studying in classes XI and XII. The aim of the project is to address the low enrollment ratio of girl students in engineering institutions in the country. It also aims to address the teaching gap between school education and engineering entrance examination.

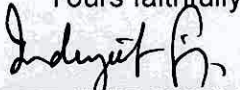

This project constructs a broad platform for the girl students of classes XI and XII where assistance by means of online portal, virtual weekend contact classes at chosen centre, 24*7 helpline and study material so as to enable them to study at their own pace, time and comfort. Financial assistance to girls who get admission in IIT/NIT/ centrally funded engineering Institutes is also given as per the norms.

The Board conducts weekly online contact classes every Saturday and Sunday at Delhi center, which is broadcasted, live to 64 other city centres schools across the country. These online contact classes are taken by the expert faculties in the field of training students for engineering examinations. Silent features, name of the centres and helpline numbers are mentioned in the enclosed brochures in bilingual. However, in case of any query you may contact to Smt. Neha Sharma, Dy. Director (Exam & Reforms) on 011-23237779, E-mail: dydirer@cbse.gov.in. The following eligibility criteria is to be kept in mind while applying for registration:
