SUCCESS

is a process, not an end game.

Dear Parents & Students,

Success is not about crossing the finish line first; it is a multilayered concept that extends beyond a single achievement or an outcome. In our journey together there have been valuable learning experiences, we have refined and evolved certain approaches which have contributed to progress of the school with impactful solutions.

I am happy to place on record that the year 2023-24 has been an excellent year in terms of the achievements and accolades received by the students, school and the Principal.

MSBSS was declared winner Pan India in the GRIHA (TERI) Exemplary Performance Award (Green Building & Sustainable Practices). School has been rated as a Green School in Audit 2023-24 by Centre for Science and Environment under Green School Programme.

Why Stories Matter!?

The world around us is made up of stories of all kinds. The trees outside your window represent a tale of their own. The buildings that surround us are all home to a collection of stories.

From a very young age, we are made familiar with stories. From classic bedtime stories to tales we are told by our family, we get to learn morals and values that will help us all throughout our lives. As we grow, the stories and the ways we experience them change drastically. You may prefer reading a novel, whereas someone else might prefer watching a movie instead. But what matters is how these stories impact us. Every character we meet and every place we visit through these stories leave us with something to carry with us forever. Maybe we find a character's situation to be similar to ours. Maybe we see a character's attitude that makes us ponder over it, or even ourselves.

Watching a slice-of-life movie may help us see things in a positive light, or binge-watching a fantasy serial may let us escape our surroundings into an unfamiliar world. Reading a biography may give us a drive for inspiration or may lead us to an interest we might not have explored otherwise.

Even diving deep into movies and comic books of superheroes may help us connect to the colourful poppy characters and their surroundings.

Storytelling also helps keep our emotions in check. Listening to an album about somebody's loss may help in calming the one in grief. Playing a narrative driven emotional video game may help one encounter their scarier thoughts firsthand. All in all, stories bind us together, and they give us an outlet to express ourselves. Maybe now is the time for you to pick up the book you've been eying or maybe streamline your favourite movie on your watchlist, listen to the album you've been skipping out on for a while, and let yourself be caressed by the touch of a good story.

A MOMENT...

*A moment without dreams
Is a moment wasted
A moment without hope
Doesn't let dreams exist
A moment without struggle
Makes you go back a step
A moment of darkness
That can swallow out life
Crushing through wills
Trampling desires
And yet...
A moment of light
Can revive everything
A moment of spring
May glitter thy path
The only thing required
Is thy permission unasked
Therefore a moment
Is for thee to decide
Whether thee live
Or thee die
Whether thee lose
Or thee thrive*

India Soars to New Heights: G20 Glory and Chandrayaan Triumphs Unveiled!

India's global impact is showcased through triumphant endeavours at the G20 summit and the Chandrayaan mission. The G20 summit served as a platform for India's economic growth, strengthened trade relations, and commitment to environmental stewardship, solidifying its role as a diplomatic powerhouse. Another notable stride in the G20 was India's role in facilitating Africa's inclusion, transforming it into the G21. This not only highlighted India's robust presence in global affairs but also marked a turning point in addressing pressing issues collaboratively.

Simultaneously, Chandrayaan-3 propelled India to the forefront of space exploration, making it the first country to explore the moon's south pole. The mission's scientific contributions and technological advancements garnered international recognition, emphasising India's space exploration capabilities. Beyond accolades, these achievements serve as educational inspirations, encouraging students to delve into STEM fields and contributing to the nation's progress.

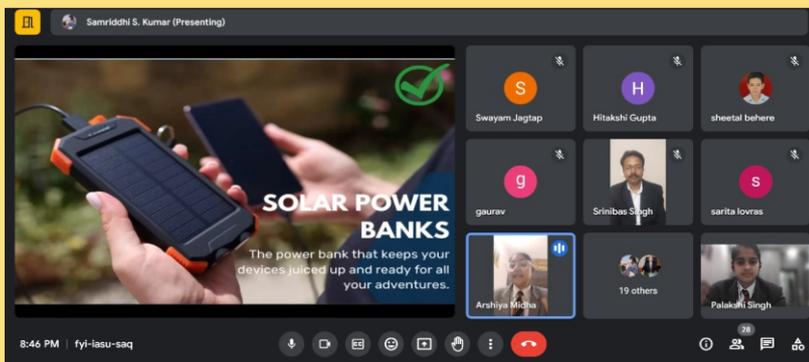

These triumphs evoke national pride, symbolising India's collective ascent on the global stage. As we celebrate these victories, we witness an era where India's influence extends beyond borders, reaching cosmic dimensions and exemplifying limitless potential.
